The extreme height of the flood here will, it is believed, be reached Sunday morning in a stage of 35 feet, which is five feet above the danger line. Unless heavy rains set in this will be the highest point, but should there be more rain, rivermen believe all records since 1882 will be broken and that 35 feet will be reached and possibly exceeded.

By nightfall, it is predicted, the stage in the Missouri will be close to 31 feet. There was a corresponding fail in the Kaw.

Notwithstanding the rapid decline, the water about the Union depot, which is the highest point in the flooded district, is still four feet above the first floor. While the conditions are vastly more hopeful, a tremendous undertaking confronts the two cities. The waters, as they recede, are disclosing a wrecked, slime-covered area of five miles square. It is conceded by several engineeers who have investigated the situation closely that the whole terminal system of the railroads in the bottoms will have to be rebuilt, together, with bridges that alone, it is estimated, cannot be replaced at under from 35,000,000 to 810,000,000. GATES'S "SQUEEZE" IN CORN.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES I
CHICAGO, June 4.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) John W. Gates is up to his old tricks. With Col. Isaac Elwood, "Tin Plate" Reid and a few other millionaires, the man of millions has engineered a "squeeze" in July corn. Reports at the Board of Trade today were that the Gates combination was "long" 20,000,000 bushels of July option. The profits ready to pocket are estimated at more than $500,000. Sharp traders on the board have long been suspicious of Gates, and when the market boomed today the belief was regarded as verified. Traders and farmers alike now expect corn to go soaring. Farmers are loth to let go of their stock. The pit was excited this morning by the manuevers of the Gates-Elwood crowd.
July corn closed last night at 47%c.
Within an hour of the opening today it had jumped to 48%c. Then came tactics which showed to experienced men on change, men who had been with Gates in other fights, that the millionaire was engineering the deal. Instead of builling the market and sending prices up with a rush, Gates ordered his traders to throw corn on the market. The Gates crowd practically controls the situation.

(BT DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) WASHINGTON, June 4.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Former Representative Loud of California has been in this gity for several days, watching with interest the developments in the post-office scandals. To a newspaper correspondent today he said of the two mostoffice chiefs who have been under investigation for the past few weeks:

"I believe Beavers is a very much abler man than Machen; in fact, George Beavers is one of the best business men I ever came in contact with in the government service. He always the government service. He always d his work up to date, and knew hat he was about. Now that Machen s been removed. I think I can tell you an interesting story in regard to his tremendous influence and power ever Congress. He was able, to get almost anything he wanted out of Congress. Machen had under his control one of the biggest and most effective press burgaus in the national capital. He had close connections with the United States, and when his press bureau got to work it meant business. "Almost since its inception I have predicted that rural free delivery would be a menace to Congress if allowed to go on, and would in time become one of the effective political machines in this country. Belleving this, I thought it would be a good idea to stop its growth in its incipiency, and, after giving the matter a great deal of thought and attention, I decided the best thing would be to give out the work of delivering rural mail to contractors, instead of creating a special department of the division to look after it. When I perfected my plans, I sent for Machen and laid-the matter before him. He agreed with me that the idea was a great one, and intimated that he thought I ought to go ahead with it. If he had told me at that time, point blank, that he would be against the contract system, I should have dropped it then and there, because I realized his purished should have dropped it then and here, because I realized his power nd knew he could beat it if he wished o de so, but, having his practical ac-

They would soon want bigger pay and shorter hours, as well as other ns, which Congress would

t one of them could withstand the wer of the carriers' organization. rer of the carriers' organization, ey agreed with me, and promised to te for my bill. When the day came bringing the measure up. I went these same men and told them they uild soon have to vote for the bill. agine my surprise when they threw their hands and declared they were their hands and declared to a man the same time showing me dispatches and letters innumerable from their re-spective balliwicks, all denouncing the scheme to change the rural-delivery

"I realized at once that Machen had been at work, his fine Italian hand was evident. Instead of remaining neutral or favoring my bill, as I supposed he would do, he started his great press bureau and other influences at work to beat it, and when a vote was taken I had about twenty-seven followers. This will give you an idea of the power of Machen's political machine.

"If my method had been adopted by Congress at that time, there would have been no trouble about rural free delivery. The work would have gone on as usual, but it would have been ne by independent contractors, and no political organization could have been built up out of it. That was the time to have acted. I believe it is now

"The service has grown to such an extent and members of Congress are so bound up with it that it will now be almark my words, five or ten years from now, the letter carriers of this country will be the most powerful organization that we havev, and they will come pretty near running Congress. Think for a moment, every letter carrier on these prats proutes has friends and relatives that he can influence and control. The carriers nearly always designate members of their respective families as substitutes on their routes. Take, for instance, the official bulletin of appointments issued June 2. On that list are twelve new letter carriers. Out of a dogen six have appointed members of their families as substitutes. So it goes through the entire service. The rural-delivery business is a very loss corporation, and the carriers will be able to extend their influence far and wide into the different Congress Districts."

When asked whether he thought Machen did not want me to come back to Congress last fall, Mr. Loud said: "It is a hard matter for me to asswer that the buy defeat, I, of course, when the think of the conditions of the congress and that he did what he could knew that the buy defeat. I, of course, when the think of the conditions of the congress and their labor-union allies."

IBY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-A.M. WASHINGTON, June 4.—The cotton bulletin of the Department of Agriculture was issued today, as fol-"The statistician of the Department

"The statistician of the Department of Agriculture estimates the total area planted in cotton in the United States this season at 28,907,000 acres, an increase of 1,029,000 acres, or 3.7 per cent, upon the acreage planted last year.

"The average condition of the growing crop, May 28, was 74.1, as compared with 36.1 May 26, 1902; 31.5 May 20, 1901, and a ten-year average of 86.9.

The condition now reported is for the cotton belt, as a whole, and for the States of Georgia, Alabams and Texas in particular, the lowest condition ever reached this season of the year. The crop is almost everywhere from ten to twenty-one days late.

here, received a cablegram today from the Colombian Minister of Foreign Affairs, dated Bogota, June I, saying: "he reisstablishment of peace has officially been declared."

He says this means absolute suspension of martial law, subordinating the military to the civil authorities, and relieving the President of the power invested in him while the country was under military control. He says it also means a discontinuance of the issue of paper money, which was adopted as a war measure. Forced contributions can no longer be levied. The suspension of martial law removes the restrictions placed upon newspapers in time of war, although these restrictions were recently partially removed by the Ministry of War, who extended to the newspapers the privilege of freely and fully discussing the canal question.

Chief Executive Tells Tacomattes He Would Rather be a Whole President for Three and a Half Years Than a Half President for Seven and a Half Years-Charles S. Mellen's Admira-

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES. SEATTLE, June 4.- During the live days he spent in this State, President Roosevelt made sixteen speeches, atstones, took two steamship rides on Puget Sound, and was afforded the opportunity of looking into the faces of 250,000 men, women and children, or practically one-third of the residents of the State. The largest nun. ber of people gathered in any was met at Seattle, where he delivered three addresses, was taken for four carriage drives through streets packed with surging crowds, and spent an en-tire Sunday, with the exception of the morning church hour, at his rooms at the Washington, or in horseback riding

half years." Both factions of the Republican party

Both factions of the Republican party in Washington were represented at each of these banquets, somewhat in violation of the original intention of the Senators who planned them apparently with the purpose of leaving out Gov. McBride, who is the recognized leader of the radical element. Gov. McBride expresents what is commonly called the "anti-railroad" faction of the Republican party, while both Senators Foster and Ankeny belong to the opposing faction. At the Tacoma banquet the conversation turned upon the subject of fidelity to party platforms—a subject which has an important bearing upon the local conditions, since the pro-railrond faction of the party, through its control of the recent State Legislature, refused to carry out the plank of the last State Republican platform, declaring in favor of an appointive railroad commission.

In the course of the conversation Gov. McBride expressed it as his opinion that a man elected upon a platform should endeavor to faithfully carry out the promises of that platform. Benjamin S. Grosseup, attorney for the Northern Pacific Railroad, who was active in the defeat of the proposed commission bill, expressed the opinion that it depended upon whether the man elected believed that the platform was sound in its policies, and expressed the wishes of his constituents. The President expressed emphatically the same view as that taken by the Governor, It is extremely probable that this conversation of it, will figure largely in the coming facof the recent State Legislature relations of the President of the President of the President of the President of the San Jose, Local State Carry out the plank of the standard of the recent State Legislature relations of the President of the Pre publican party in Washington.

For several weeks before the President arrived in the State the Reception committees of Tacoma and Seattle had been engaged in a very spirited altercation concerning the proposed litherary. The Seattle committee insisted on taking a steamer to Tacoma to receive and take charge of him there, and this programme was urged upon the President by Congressman Humphrey. On the contrary, the Tacoma committee insisted on taking him on a steamer ride to the Puget Sound Navy Yard at Bremerson, and later delivering him to the Seattle committee at the dock in Seattle. In the end this programme prevailed, the President's secretary authorizing Senator Foster to arrange the itinerary to the end. But in order to administer a rebuke to the Tacoma committee, the Seattle pecple organized a fleet of ocean and sound steamers—some thirty in number—and went down the sound to meet the President was taken on board the same steamer for a ride to Everett. this time as the guest of the Seattle committee.

One of these was a baseball game which hes ran into at Fort Lawton, near Seattle, while out for a Sunday afternoon horseback ride, and the other was an Indian cance race, which was arranged for his reception at Everett. There were five cances containing nine Indians each in the latter contest, and they started out just as the President's steamer was leaving the dock. The President became so interested in the contest that he instructed Capt. Nicholson to move slowly until the race was ended. The sea was rather rough, and the racers had gone but a short distance when one of the cances was swamped. The President was the first one to notice the predicament, and to call attention to it. But when he noticed that the occupants of the cance were indifferent to their position, and after being thrown into the water climbed on the bottom of their boat and commenced paddling toward the shore, he enthusiastically declared: "Why, look at them. They don't seem to care in the least for their ducking. They are laughing over it, as though they had won the orize themselves."

A few minutes later, when the cances came into the home stretch, two of them was close together that the race was difficult to decide, and the occupants of the leading cance straining at their paddles, were singing in a wild, barbaric strain, the President became so excited that the leaned over the rail and took up the cadence of their "Ki-Yi! Ki-Yi! Ki-Yi! Ki-Yi!" until the hundreds of people on the wharf who were watching him were convulsed with pleasure and amusement.

You are the president of the Northern Pacific, one of the constituent companies of the Northern Securities Company, and the President is making an effort to dissolve the Northern Securities Company, and the President is making an effort to dissolve the Northern Securities Company. Your views are not consistent with your position."

"The Attorney-General has advised the President that the merger is unlawful," replied Mellen, "and in such a case as this there is but one thing for the President to do. I hope that the time may come when the laws will permit capital to combine for its own protection, when the interests of the people are not in any way endangered thereby. But in the meantime it is the duty of a President to enforce such laws as Congress makes. And I would not admire President Roosevelt half so much if he followed any other course.

The Riesest Auto.

The Biggest Auto.

There was put into operation in the city this week what is said to be the largest passenger automobile in the world, and probably is. It is an electric wagon, twenty-two feet long and seven feet wide, with a row of eight seats, each capable of holding five persons, eight feet from the ground. The car weighs 7000 pounds, and is one of ten ordered by a company which operates in different cities carrying sight-seers about. Formerly six-horse coaches were used, but they were too unwieldly in city streets and the motor coaches are said to be cheaper. These wagons for forty persons have a battery of forty-four seventeen-plate cells, which is the same as that used on trucks built to haul five tons. The gears are arranged for four speeds forward and one in reverse, the highest speed being eight-miles an hour, at which rate the coach can run for thirty miles without recharging. The wheels are fitted with solid rubber tires, five inches wide, and double expansion brakes are fitted to each of the two gear wheels at the rear. Ladders which the passengers use for mounting and dismounting are carried, in compartments in the body, and over the coach there is a collapsible canopy, which also can be stowed away in these compartments.—[View York Sun the Herald, a complete merger of the Canada Southern Railroad with the Michigan Central was effected yester-day at the special stockholders' meet-ing held St. Thomas, Ont. It is said to have been effected by a lease of the Southern to the Central for $99 years. There was some opposition on the part of the minority stockholders, but the Vanderbilt interests were able to con trol about two-thirds of the stock.

The new lease succeeds a former which expires December 31. Its life was twenty-one years, and it provides for the operation of the company's lines in connection with the Michigan Central, the gross earnings of the whole system to be applied first to the payment of the operating expenses and fixed charges of the companies, and the net surplus to be then divided in the proportion of two-thirds to the Michigan Central and one-third to the Canada Southern.

The gambling machine of that type was long since tabooed in this city of more or less wickedness, but it still flourishes in the towns and villages surrounding us, like a green bay tree. To the lookeron it would appear as if here were something that might well engage the attention of the members of the Board of Supervisors some morning when they have leisure to consider it. If flot, just why not is what the non-gambling public would like to have explained. Nor did they find these high rates absorbed by equally higher cost of living. Food is as cheap, rent higher, rates lower, and although the man in Los Angeles will celebrate the Glo living. Food is as cheap, rent higher, rates lower, and although the man in America lives better, he has a greater margin. The fact that, although such high wages are paid, the relative cost of labor is lewer to the American than of labor is lewer to the American than to the British employer, is attributed by the commissioners mainly to the more skillful arrangement of American work shops, the greater use of appliances, and the greater capacity of those at the head. (BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-A.M.)

IBT THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.B.1 COLUMBUS (O.) June 4.—Gen. Charles Dick, chairman of the Com-mittee on Resolution, presented its re-port as follows:

"The Republicans of Ohio rejoice in Real Brand of Harmony in Ohio Convention. United for Hanna and Herrick and States, comprising the world's greatest nation.

"We commend President Roosevelt's fidelity to duty, his adherence to President McKinley's policies, and his own proved ability in his high office, showing him in every way worthy of election by the people to be their Chief Magistrate. We favor his nomination for President in 1904.

"The Ohio delegation to Congress has honored the State in both houses. Senators Joseph B. Foraker and Marcus A. Hanna have splendidly mathrained Ohio leadership. The reflection of Senator Hanna is a distinct national demand upon our State and we hereby cordially promise him the unreserved support of the entire Republican party in Ohio.

"Gov. George K. Nash, with his able assistants in the State offices, for their faithful and successful administration deserve the generous commendation and gratitude of the people.

In Ohio, as in the nation, Republican achievements compel popular approval. Our State debt is canceled.

great friend, George B. Cox of Cinetnati, named Warren M. Harding for Lieutenant-Governor, and Wade Hampton Ellis for Attorney-General, as well as being the most potential factor in nominating Judge Summers. Auditor Guilbert and others, especially McKinnon for Treasurer, were strongly indorsed.

While Senator Foraker expressed his gratification in the ticket generally, he was especially gratified over the unani-and gratitude of the people.

In Ohio, as in the nation, Republican achievements compel popular approval. Our State debt is canceled, the cash surplus in our treasury is at record figures, the State institutions were never more efficiently or economically conducted. We favor removing limitations which prevent a more just system of taxation.

"Ohio ought not to discriminate longer against her own corporations, thus cutting off possible revenues and other-benefits and we therefore favor and indorse the amendment to remove the present provision in our State constitution of the double liability of stockholders.

"We also favor the amendments to vest the Governor with the veto power.

"The question of transportation is one of the most important problems now before the American people for determination. The full utilisation of our land waierways is demanded by all business interests. We therefore favor the continued improvement by the general government of the Ohio River, that is navigable stage of water

"This is Hanna's year. Yesterday was in an especial sense Hanna's day, and he improved it to the utmost. He made our keynote speech, and I do not hesitate to say it was one of the best I ever heard in any convention.

"We have three great duties before us to discharge. In the first place we have the duty of nominating here today, electing in November next. Myron T. Herrick to be Governor of Ohlo. He is yet a young man comparatively, in the very prime and vigor of physical and mental manhood. He is a man of the highest character. He has a familiar knowledge of public affairs, public questions, and public men. He is well qualified to be a great leader in a great party, in a great State, and in a great party, in a great State, and in a great campaign. We will elect him in November, and then as our reward he will give us one of the best State administrations the people of Ohlo have ever enjoyed.

Democrats as well as Republicans. He stands today in the very front rank of the Senate's most influential members, and no one there does more than he to fashion the policies of his party, and determine the laws of the nation. Every step of that advancement was attended with credit to his state and credit to his party, credit to his State and credit to his party, credit to his State and ordit to his party, credit to his State and ordit to his country. It is for reasons of that kind that we intend to give Senator Hanna our indorsement here today, and our commission again next January, when the Legislature meets. And so we intend to keep on reflecting him from time to time just as long as he lives, and we hope he may live forever. fullest possible degree of self-government.

"In this connection, we voice the grateful acknowledgment of the nation for the splendid service in the Philippines of that distinguished son of Ohio, Gov.-Gen. William H. Taft.

"Under Presidents McKinley and Roosevelt, our foreign policy of equity to all has made the United States the peacemaker of the world, guarding weaker nations from aggression, and giving the Monroe doctrine a vital force greater than ever before. As America's part in preserving the peace of the world, we indorse the Republican policy of development of the United States navy to the highest efficiency, and we will give every encouragement possible to our merchant marine in the extension of American commerce in American ships until every sea is covered by them.

"The protective tariff policy of the Republican party has made the United States the greatest industrial nation, astonishing the world with the tremendous development of our boundless resources; added vastly to our foreign commerce; greatly increased the prosperity of the farmer, and has advanced American labor to the best scale of living ever attained.

"We oppose all attacks upon this policy, whatever the pretext, as tend-

He has fairly won it. He entered upon the duties of the Presidency under the most trying circumstances. There were many who doubted his ability to succeed, many who predicted fairure, but today it can be truthfully said that he has not only met, but he has surpassed the most sanguine expectations of his most confident and most ardent friends. The people of this country have come to know him because of the work he bas done, as a man of brains, as a man of courage, as a man of purpose, as a man of brains, as a man of courage, is fearless in the discharge of his duty, if do not hesitate to speak in this manner at this time, because we are all agreed that next year he is to be our candidate, and that next year we will triumphantiy elect him to the Presidency to continue to adminster Republican policies, and bring bonor and glory to the nation.

"The Republicans not only of this State, but also of the whole country are united upon policies, purposes, aspirations and ambitions. We are not divided about any questions; but look at the ranks of the Democracy. They are all broken, Half of them do not know whether they are yet for free silver or not. Half of them do not know whether they are yet for free trade or against it. They are not only defended anywhere, upon any man, Bryan does not want Cleveland, and cleveland does not want Bryan, and neither of them wants anybody else. But that is perhaps as well as at a lower cost, should now endeayor within safe lines, to stimulate local bank circulation, thus securing an elasticity of currency supply commensurate with business demands and we favor well-guarded legislation to this end.

"Ohio was the first State with soil forever free from the stain of slavery. It was first to preserve the indistructible union of indestructible States," and adheres firmly to every amendment which that war wrote into our country's Constitution as binding in honor upon every American citizen.

"From its early day the Republican party has accomplished great results in the State and nation, and without resting upon its laurels has continually pressed forward to new duties. Unremittingly it seeks to establish whatever is safe and wise and truly progressive and in futherance of its great and patriotic purposes, it invites most cordially the cooperation and support of all who sincerely desire to promote our country's highest welfare.

[From Justica, Manila, April 18, 1903:] The Manila Cablenews of last Monday morning printed the portraits of two Filipino boys who are learning to operate its linotype machines, and this is what it has to say about them: this is what it has to say about them:

"The subjects of the cuts published herewith are two of the Cablenews' staff of Filipino linotype operators. Their names are Louis Albay and Jose Ortis. The former is a native of Manilia and was born in Santa Cruz. He is 19 years old. He first began work on the linotype last November, and at the present time sets seven and a half columns of unleaded matter in eight point in an eight-hour shift. His proof is good. José Ortis has an equally good record. He is 21 years of age, and has been operating a linotype machine for less than four months. In this time he has gained speed rapidly, and is now able to turn out from six to seven columns in a night.

Water Supply of Southern California.

An exhaustive study of the water supply available for domestic use and for irrigation in Southern California has been begun by the United States Geological Survey, under the direction of Mr. Homer Hamlin. All available information regarding wells, discharge of streams, rainfall and other sources of water supply, is being collected and tabulated. This hydrographic data will be placed upon topographic maps, which will then show, in addition to the surface contours, the contours and slope of the water plane over areas where the water supply is of economic importance. These maps and the tables prepared will show the source of the underground water and the direction in which it moves. A careful series of measurements to determine the velocity of the flow of underground water through gravels and sands is being carried on at Huron street, Los Angeles, at the outlet of the Jan Fernando valley. Successful measurements have been made at bed rock 100 feet below the surface.

An examination of the abandoned sacks showed that they were filled with fine copper wire, the kind used by the Pacific Electric Railway Company. There was about 300 pounds, worth 15 cents a pound. At the City Jail, Martinez admitted that he and several other members of the Mexican union had formed a compact to narass the electric railway company in every possible way. By taking this wire it is supposed their purpose was to prevent a number of the laborers on the company's construction work from getting in full time, inasmuch as it would be necessary for them to secure a new supply of material before the work could be continued, and meantime the men would have no work. Subsequently he asserted that he alone had taken the wire, but this is known to be false. Every effort is being made by the police to capture the other two men. Whether they are captured or not, Martines will be vigorously prosecuted for larceny.

WANT A LIGHT.

Citizens residing in the vicinity of Twenty-seventh street and Vermont avenue have petitioned the Council, almost en masse, for a street lamp at that point. This crossing is the cartaking spot for scores of people living on Vermont between Twenty-seventh and Twenty-sejath streets, on Menlo avenue and Ellendale Place, and on West Twenty-seventh-street for an indefinite distance, including all its contingent territory since there is no other line within easy distance. The need of a lamp has been felt for years, and it is devoutly hoped by the denizens of the neighborhood that they will now get what is an actual necessity.

MANY CHARGES AGAINST THEM.

National Construction Company Officers in Jail.

Christie and Taylor Accused of Extensive Swindling.

San Francisco Loan Association Complaint-Masterson is M.ssing.

If the allegations contained in a com-plaint in which two unexpected arrests were made yesterday are true, the Pinkerton men stationed in Los Ange-

$40,000 is said to be involved.

The men arrested yesterday are Henry Christie, president of the National Construction Company, and A. J. Taylor, secretary of the same concern. They are charged with obtaining money by false pretenses, and after having been released on ball after the first arrest, they were taken into custody last night on a second warrant for the same on a second warrant for the same charge. It is said there are at least twelve additional complaints against them, and that as fast as they give ball them, and that as fast as they give ball on one complaint they will be arrested on another. Being unable to give bond on the second warrand, they were obliged to spend the night in jail.

The game of R. F. Masterson is also mentioned in the warrants, but some time ago he left the city and the officers have been unable to add him. Helpers have been unable to add him. Helpers have been unable to add him. Helpers have been unable to add him. cers have been unable to find him. Half a score of detectives are looking for him. In his absence the other two de-

Masterson was the Los Angeles representative.

In the complaint on which the first warrant was issued it is alleged that the accused by collusion secured from the building and loan association $2500 on property which is not worth $1500 on property which were $1500 on property which were $1500 on property w committed by some person, but just who it is not yet known. That may later be made the basis of further criminal prosecution.

In some manner the association learned of this practice and sent a number of Pinkerion detertives to-Los Angeles to investigate. What they found is of course not made public, but as a result of their investigations the arrests of yesterday were made.

The arrests were not made hurriedly but only after an investigation covering several weeks, and what the Pinkerton's learned about the operations of Taylor and Christle will only he known when the matter comes up in court.

According to the attorney for the men under arrest the case is entirely different from what it is stated to be by those who caused the warrant to issue. It is asserted that the arrest are simply for the purpose of compelling Christle and Taylor to make sood losses which the Continental Building and Loan Association sustained through the alleged peculations of its agent, Masterson. It was stated lasen, Masterson. It was stated has night that the building and loan association offered to compromise the case for $1500, but that the accused, believing they had done nothing wrong, but being convinced that they too, had been victimized by Masterson, offered to settle for $1500. They declare Masterson came to them and representing himself to be clothed with full power to transact business for the Continental Building and Loan Association, gave them certain money. They deny all connection with his dealings with other nerons and even deny the allegation that they were parties to erroneous and fradulent appraisements.

parties to erroneous and fradulent appraisements.

(BT DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

SAN FRANCISCO, June 4.—[Exclusive Dispach.] A clever fraud by which the Continental Building and company. It is one of the rules of the Loan Association has escaped severe loss only by technicality, and by which Los Angeles banks will suffer to an amount of upward of $20,000, has just been unearthed by officers of the company. It is one of the rules of the association that careful investigation of all transactions be made every thirty days. When the last investigation came 2 obe made a few days ago, it was found that many loans to parties in Los Angeles were correct that their signatures to the applications had been forged.

Two men, whose names are given as Taylor and Christie, have been arrested for the crime, although their confederate, who is known as Masterson, is still at large. Masterson's part in the scheme was to recommend parties asking for loans, and as he is a man of good repute and whose integrity had been heretofore unchallenged, his recommendations were accepted without question. When arrested, Taylor and Christie were eager to settle the matter and made liberal offers in order to escape punishment for their crime, but the Building and Loan and Loan at the work of the University of Southern California would be somein order to escape punishment for their crime, but the Building and Loan As-sociation refused to compound a felony and the law is to be allowed to take its sociation refused to compound a felony and the law is to be allowed to take its course.

The banks must stand the loss. Fortunately for the association, when these spurious loans were accepted, checks were issued to persons for whose benefit it is supposed it was acting, and as they are real persons, they only were entitled to cash the checks. But being mailed to addresses given by the criminals, the latter had an opportunity to forge indorsements and present the checks for payment at various Los Angeles banks. The banks, of course, paid the checks at their peril, and by failing to recognize the spurious character of the signatures, they have relieved the Building and Loan Association of losses which it would otherwise have sustained.

The scheme was in operation but ten days, and had it not happened that the regular month yinvestigation was due at this time the amount secured would have been much larger, as not only Masterson, but many well-intentioned people were beguiled into recommending applicants.

There has been the feeling at times over the disposin that has been made of this money, the londs should be sold, the money all necessarily lie in the treasury a considerable period. The outfall wer, for instance, will not be comitted within less than two years from time work is begun. A portion of bond money will necessarily lie in treasury until the work is competed. It cannot be kept in the city ults. Some of the banks will derive the benefit of holding this money on the several banks to lie in the reserve bank vaults until called for, thdrawals to be made pro rata. GRIFFITH AVENUE.

GRIFFITH AVENUE.

Councilman Davenport has been charged with nearly all the crimes in the calendar by a hysterical evening sheet because of the proposed opening of Griffith avenue from Twenty-Inith to Jefferson street. He has been pictured as snatching the bread from the mouths of widows, babes and orphans, whereas, there is not one scintilla of evidence to show that he had any discretionary part-to play in the proceedings. The property owners on Griffith avenue and included in the assessment district for its opening may have good legal grounds on which to oppose the assessment, but the most cursory examination of the proceedings shows that their only recourse is to the courts. The facts in the Griffith-avenue opening proceeding, as shown by the records are that the City Attorney was directed to present the ordinance for the acquirement of the property October 22, 1900, on motion of George Pessell, then representing the Sixth Ward in the Council. In May, 1902, the ordinance was presented and duly passed by the Council in which A. A. Allen represented the ward. The boundaries of the assessment district were fixed by the ordinance of intention. The case was then thrown into the courts, appraisers were appointed and all necessary legal steps taken. It was not until last March that the judgment was duly entered.

Col. W. G. Schreiber, who acts as the clerk of the Council committees, began work on the assessment as soon as he could get the prior condemnation proceedings out of the way. His duity is to take the total amount of damages awarded by the court, and apportion it upon the several pieces of property included in the assessment district. The amount in this case was $1995.95. Schreiber submitted his apportionment of the property included in the assessment district. The amount in this case was $1995.95. schreiber submitted his apportionment of the damages to Davenport, and he approved it.

Neither Davenport or any other member of the present Council passed on the making of the assessment, the size of the district or on any question save the equity of the damage apportionment made by Col. Schreiber.

A week from next Monday a franchise will be sold over this portion of Griffith avenue. It is the same franchise that the Council refused to award to the Los Angeles Railway Company for $2500. Howeer, it is solemnily asserted by the city officials that the atreet-opening proceeding was pressed just as fast as are similar proceedings and that all the questions regarding the assessment district were settled long before Henry Huntington applied for a franchise.

There are no indications that the opening is being pressed at the request of the rallway company, as the interests of the company would be identical with those of property owners who assert that the property sought to be condemned has been used as a public highway so long that it has become a street.

All the difficulty arose in the beginning from the fact that the street is on the line between the Boettcher Tract and a subdivision made by Grider & Dow. The latter firm dedicated thirty-five feet for the street, but Boettcher and the Southern Pacific Railroad Company withdrew from the agreement and the other hirty-five feet were never formally dedicated. However, Boettcher allowed the strip to be used as a street until the residents came to regard it as a thoroughfare. They object to paying for what they have regarded as a street and there is good reason to believe that their protest would be sustained by the courts.

An indignation meeting will be that their protest would be sustained by the courts.

An indignation meeting will be held tonight at No. 910 East Thirty-third street to discuss the situation. It was postponed from last night because of the marriage of Councilman Davenport's daughter. The representative of the Sixth Ward will explain to his constituents that his only action in reference to the proceeding was in approving an assessment of damages that had been awarded by the courts. The humorous side of the Griffith avenue furore lies in the fact that when the opening was first proposed Councilman Pessell was accused of "standing in" with the Southern Pacific Raliroad Company because he was not strongly in favor of the condemnation then desired by the property owners.

Bids for Brick and Cement.

The bids for supplying the city with of the outfall sewer were again con rning. City Engineer Stafford sile strength of the cement, all bids for that material were held over for five weeks. No decision was reached regarding the bids on brick. The reports of the City Engineer are known to favor the bid of the California Portland Cement Company of $2.40 per barrel for cement, and the offer of C. Forrester to supply brick at $6.40 per thousand at Los Angeles or Inglewood. The bid of the E. B. & A. L. Stone Company for cement was 3 cents a barrel lower than that of the California Portland Cement Company, but the brand to be supplied has only been on the market a short time, and the City Engineer believes that the difference is so slight that a well-known and tried brand should be preferred. Lower bids for brick were submitted, but the tests showed the samples entirely unfit for sower purposes. A large number of contractors and attorneys appeared before the committee yesterday to urge the merits of their material, and Attorney Walter Bacon reiterated the protest made last week in the name of the Master Builders' Association against the city.

When the utter hopelessness of the strike was proven, overtures were made to Kingsley, Moles & Collins to compromise with the union by taking back two of the strikers. This the firm agreed to do if they might select the two men to be reinstated, but the ring-leader of the strikers insisted on being one of the two, and the firm wouldn't have him, so only one man, who renounced the union, was taken back.

Kingsley, Moles & Collins are now running an "open" shop, employing whom they please regardless of whether the employé belongs to any union or not. I remember thinking at the moment of the comical spectacle I must have presented from the shore, if there had been anyone on the shore to witness it. I was fully dressed and had on my glasses and a wide-brimmed hat, and, to my mind, nothing is more undignified than a man swimming with hat and glasses on.

A FALSE ADARM.

And speaking of blood-curdling adventures, one of the terrors of the party, when we started to explore the Tanana River, was Indians. We had heard, even from the officers at the forts, of the bloodthirsty character of the aborigines who inhabit the valley of the Tanana. The early pressectors signs of me he was utterly perplexed. There were no woods on the bank, and he supposed the water to be shallow. I had been there when he looked last, and then he looked and I was gone. There are many incidents on these exploration trips. Even accidents are classed as incidents. A little thing like a sprained ankle or a fall becomes an incident to the seasoned campaigner. But on the whole, they are rather amusing than adventurous. The real purposes of the expeditions are serious—how serious may be judged from the official publications, where the results are compiled in good, voluminous hard facts and figures.

Dr. and Mrs. Crow will return from their wedding trip to reside temporarily with Mr. and Mrs. Davenport. In the fall they plan to build a bungalow on Moore street, between Seventh and Eighth, quite near Dr. Crow's people on West Seventh street. Both young people are prominent in the religious life of the First Methodist Episcopal Church. Mrs. Crow is a member of the famous J. O. C. class and Dr. Crow is president of "We Boya." He has been practicing dentistry in Los Angeles for two years, having previously graduated from the University of Pennsylvania.

Badger Club Dines at Van Nuys.

The annual kuncheon of the California Badger Club was given at the Van Nuys Broadway yesterday afternoon. Fifty-five Wisconsin women were seated at a long table in the dining-room.

The decorations were American Beauty roses, sweet peas and asparagus ferns. Mrs. Eliza Tupper Wilkes made an ideal toastmistress, introducing the following subjects and speakers, after the serving of an elaborate menu:

"Wisconsin Springtime," Miss Lillian Vosburgh: "Charms of Southern California," Miss Louise Crow: "Old Friends and New," Miss Mary C. Cunningham; "The Tenderfoot in California," Mrs. William John Scholl: "Our Newspaper Women," Mrs. Theron Nichols; "The Tie that Binds," Miss Ellen Harper Wheeler. The responses were all in a happy veinsome full of tenderness; others sparkling with wit and humor. Stamm's Orchestra rendered delightful music during the luncheon hour. Mrs. E. W. Gillmore and Mrs. H. W. Pettibone, were the Committee on Arrangement for this most successful social function.

Henry on West Eleventh street to surprise and congratulate Mr. Henry on the fiftieth anniverary of his birthday. Among the combany were several old-time friends whom Mr. Henry had not met for years. Among the pleasures of the evening was speech-making, led by Attorney M. B. Jones, who in legal fabion lodged a complaint against said Henry, charging him with having been born fifty years ago, which charge was sustained by the court. The defendant pleaded guilty and asked for mercy, whereupon the judge recommended that sentence be postponed for another fifty years, during which period he be simply "watched." And with that Judge Morrows of San Francisco presented the culprit with a gold watch and chain, as a token from many friends. Rev. Alexander Grant of Santa Barbara, speaking-for another group of friends, asked his acceptance of 550 in gold and a fountain pen. Mr. Henry responded as he best could. Rev. Mr. Crabbe led in prayer, and then the evening was spent in social cheer.

Monday.

Some sportsmen want the deer law changed to meet what they think are the real conditions of the sport. At present the open season is from July 15 to November 1, and a number believe the dates should be from September 1 to January 1, while others want the law to remain as it is. The dove season runs from July 1 to February 1 of the following year, and some are complaining that the season is too long, for many doves nest even in August. The trout, duck and quall seasons seem to be satisfactory to the majority of sportsmen, but of course, there are always a dozen different views of any section of any game law, for as a matter of fact, each hunter generally constitutes himself a judge as to how the laws in operation affect his, own particular case.

For this reason, no matter what dates

For this reason, no matter what dates
the laws cover, there will be complaints, and this is why the local sportsmen are expecting a warm session of the Supervisors next Monday when the game laws are considered.

WORKING FOR LICENSE.

The following from a late issue of the Daily America, the leading run-ning-horse paper of New York will be of interest to local horsemen:
"James W. Brooks, who prompted the proposed meeting at Los Angeles last winter, is expected to arrive in New York this week. He comes to further New York this week. He comes to further the interests of a meeting to be given in the beautiful California city next winter. A number of prominent capitalists are behind the scheme, and the meeting will be liberally supplied with attractive stakes and large amounts of added money in the handicaps. Senator William A. Clark of Montans, and influences connected with the all-powerful Southern Pacific Railroad Company, are backing the plan. Mr. Brooks will seek the recognition of the Jockey Club for his meeting, and if it is secured it will assure the standing and future of the new track. Political influences, exerted, it is said, in behalf of the New California Jockey Club of San Francisco, upset all calculations of the Los Angeles crowd last year. Thomas H, Williams, Jr., president of that club, threatened to outlaw every owner, trainer and horse participating in races at Los Angeles and that quite euchred Mr. Brooks in his promotion of the sport.

ORANGE.

ORANGE, June 4.—A special meeting of the directors of the Santa Ana Valley Irrigation Company was held Tuesday to pass resolutions expressive of the company's attitude in reference to the rumored proposal of the State Board of Equalization to tax its canals and ditches. A protest was drawn up and passed denouncing any such action of the Board of Equalization, on the ground that the stockholders of the irrigation company, who own the canals, are already assessed for the ditches by reason of the lagreeased values placed upon their lands and that another assessment on the improvements of the canals would be double taxation. The resolutions point out the fact that the company itself does not even own the right of wav for the canals, and should therefore not be assessed as a corporation for them. The request is made that the Board of Equalization either allow the assessment of the water stock, which represents the improvements, to be placed upon the real estate is in the past, or, to permit it to be removed from such real estate is in the past, or, to permit it to be removed from such real estate is in the past, or, to permit it to be removed from such real estate is in the past, or, to permit it to be removed from such real estate is in the past, or, to permit it to be removed from such real estate is in the past, or, to permit it to be removed from such real estate is in the past, or, to permit it to be removed from such real estate is in the past, or, to permit it to be removed from such real estate is not permit to be incompleted. Clapp's big ranch at Verdemont, only partially dressed and talking incoherently, accosted two officers on Third street at an early hour this morning, and begged to be locked up in the County Jail. He said that warrants for his arrest would put somewhere where alleged enemies, seeking his life, could not get at him. Then Kennedy brought suit for divorce on the groupd of extreme cruelty and desertion. Mrs. Kennedy came back with a cross-complaint, charging her husband with cruelty. FIRE IN OIL REFINERY. [BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-A.M.] BAKERSFIELD, June 4.—Fire completely destroyed the large warehouse and barreling shed of the Pacific Refining Company at its plant just west of the city limits this morning. The fire started from one of the large cooling kettles, and in a minute the shed was in flames, and from here the fire spread to the large warehouse in which were some four hundred barrels of asphaltum, which flowed forth in molten streams like the lava from a volcano. There was great danger to the engine-house and the stills, which were but a few feet from the burning warehouse. Surrounding the works were several distillate tanks, one of which was filled, and the immense 20,000-barrel storage tank filled with oil. Fortunately the fire department went at once to the scene, and prevented the flames spreading, and all the rest of the property escaped. The loss is given at about $6000, but the officials say they cannot form an accurate estimate at present. It is mostly insured. BAKERSFIELD, June 4.-Fire com

Secretary Shaw reached Chicago yestgrday, and was in conference for a long time with J. B. Forgan, chairman of the Executive Committee of the Chicago clearinghouse. Late in the afternoon Mr. Forgan issued a call to all the members of the clearinghouse for a meeting tomorrow afternoon, at which it is expected Secretary Shaw will be present.

One of the results of the government becoming a member of the Chicago clearing house will be that hereafter the banks of the West in settlement of constantly fluctuating accounts with the government will buy exchange on Chicago rather than in New York. The scheme will also lessen the necessity of a small army of clerks under heavy guard, every day, escorting bags of coin and rolls of bills between the various banks of the subtreasury.

time finding him, and is now having a harder time to get him out of durance. When Seigar presented himself to Chief Freeman he told a tale of woe. His nephew had left Topeka not so long ago, though 'twas before the flood. His home had been washed away. His mother had been worrying about her son, who had not been heard from since several months ago, when the young man had been working in Los Angeles. Letters did not reach him. The police knew nothing of the man, but the searching uncle happened to have a photograph with him, and yesterday it dawned upon the chief that the original of that picture was none other than a youngster who had been arrested on May 27 for vagrancy. He had come here from San Bernardino, he said, and wanted to be locked up so that he could not get liquor. He seemed to be on the verge of delirium tremens. He was given fifteen days in Jail.

In the meantime Seigar had given up the search, and had purchased tickets to go back to Kansas City next Saturday. Yesterday the chief informed him that he believed Mahan formed him—that he believed Mahan was the man desired, and then an identification was made. But Mahan, or Behrund, has an engagement with the county until the 11th inst. So yesterday was spent in hustling about to see how he could be gotten out in time to use the tickets. An attempt will be made to get him out on habeas corpus proceedings in the Superior Court.

Young Spades, the driver of the oil rig, either jumped or was thrown so he escaped the fire. He seemed to be unhurt, but when he had been taken to Santa Monica, he became unconscious. A physician examined him and pronounced him uninjured except for the severe shock he had received. Two of the four horses attached to the wagon were killed outright. A third broke loose and escaped. The fourth was apparently not injured by the collision, but was held by its harness so close to the flames that a great portion of the hair was burned from it. Seeing the pitiable plight of the animal some one ran with a knife and cut it loose from the wagon. The horse was so severely hurt that its misery was ended with a bullet.
